

CAS Amendments to draft resolution "On Russia"

Nº	Party	Line	Action	Current Text	Proposed Amendment	CAS
1	Bündnis 90/ Die Grünen	6	replace	Russia's military intervention in South Ossetia in 2008 (...)	"Russia's violation of international law and agreements concerning Georgia... "	CAS accepted
2	Bündnis 90/ Die Grünen	12-13	replace	"Russian government bodies have used well-funded disinformation campaigns and overt propaganda to influence elections in France and Germany. "	"Russian government bodies use well-funded disinformation campaigns and overt propaganda to influence elections in European countries such as elections in France and Germany and the referendum on the membership of the United Kingdom in the European Union. "	CAS accepted
3	EELV	16-19	replace	Working through certain Eastern European governments, often in exchange for unaccountably dispensed financial aid, the Russian government and intelligence services have gained a firm political and economic foothold in the European Union. By establishing a quiet presence in state bodies and security services, the Russian government has gained the capacity to indirectly influence decision-making in the European Commission and Parliament	The Russian government and its intelligence services try again and again to influence the political and economic policies of the EU and its Member States. Although it seems to no avail until now, certain political circles in the EU might not be indifferent to Russian funds and propaganda in its various forms. It is far from sure that the EU citizens will blindly follow this undercover propaganda.	falls
4	Bündnis 90/ Die Grünen	16-21	replace	"Working through certain Eastern European governments, often in exchange for unaccountably dispensed financial aid, the Russian government and intelligence services have gained a firm political and economic foothold in the European Union. By establishing a quiet presence in state bodies and security services, the Russian government has gained the capacity to indirectly influence decision-making in the European Commission and Parliament."	The Russian government and intelligence services insistently try to gain a firm political and economic foothold in the European Union and its institutions. In this regard, we are worried about the fact that some European governments support the Kremlin's policies rather than defend our common European values.	CAS accepted as amended: The Russian government and intelligence services insistently try to gain a firm political and economic foothold in the European Union and its institutions. In this regard, we are worried about the fact that some European governments support the Kremlin's policies rather than defend our common European values. Moreover, certain political circles and movements in the EU are financed by and might not be indifferent to Russian propaganda in its various forms.

Nº	Party	Line	Action	Current Text	Proposed Amendment	CAS
5	Vihreät - De Gröna	18-21	delete	By establishing a quiet presence in state bodies and security services, the Russian government has gained the capacity to indirectly influence decision-making in the European Commission and Parliament.		withdrawn
6	Miljöpartiet de Gröna	19	replace	19: the Russian government has gained	the Russian government has attempted to gain ...	falls
7	Miljöpartiet de Gröna	30-36	delete	We continue to observe worrying developments in Russian society and public life with great concern, and we believe that inequality, lopsided economic development, a systematic disregard for environmental protection and sustainability, and a permanent arms race will never benefit the interests and general well-being of Russian citizens. We advocate for a democratic, prosperous, globally engaged and sustainable Russia at peace with its neighbours, global partners and regional stakeholders.		withdrawn
8	FYEG	32	add		crackdown on civil society	CAS accepted
9	FYEG	32	add		blatant disregard for mass human rights violations	CAS accepted as amended: blatant disregard for mass human rights violations, including the continuing violence against and persecution of LGBTIQ+ peoples in Russia.
10	EELV	34	add	and a permanent arms race will never benefit the interests and general well-being of Russian citizens.	and a permanent arms race will never benefit the interests and general well-being of the Russian citizens and might even prove to be a threat to the democratic values in the European Union.	CAS accepted as amended: and might also prove to be a threat to the democratic values in the European Union.
11	GGEP	from 34	add	None	The European Green Party supports EU sanctions on Russia linked to both the annexation of Crimea and the war in the Donbass, and stands firm for their extension and/or broadening as long as these crises are not solved.	CAS accepted as amended: The European Green Party supports EU sanctions on Russia linked to both the annexation of Crimea and the war in the Donbass, and stands firm for their extension as long as these crises are not solved.

Nº	Party	Line	Action	Current Text	Proposed Amendment	CAS
12	GPEW	36	Add new paragraph from new line 37	We advocate for a democratic, prosperous, globally engaged and sustainable Russia at peace with its neighbours, global partners and regional stakeholders.	The EGP also condemns the continuing violence and persecution against LGBTIQ+ citizens in Russia and in its area of influence. This abominable treatment of citizens has led to disturbing situations like in Chechnya where the LGBTIQ+ community has been rounded up beaten and some instances murdered for their sexuality. The EGP finds such actions beyond reprehensible and sickening and believe human rights should be observed and afforded to all in Russia. The EGP condemns the Russian government for actively promoting violence against LGBTIQ+ citizens and pushing them outside of society.	withdrawn
13	Bündnis 90/ Die Grünen	36	add		Therefore we urge European institutions and EU member states to deepen exchange with Russian civil society, academia, independent media und progressive opposition forces. Condemning and sanctioning official Russian elites for violations of international law should be paralleled by offering and showing Russian civil society and the Russian people better alternatives.	CAS accepted
14	FYEG	36	add		We support the efforts of civil society aiming for such change	falls