3	AM-27-1	Bündnis 90/Die Grünen	Trans people are facing increased negative discourse, prejudice, intolerance and violence from conservative right-wing actors and anti-trans women's groups. In these cases, trans women are vilified, trans men are stripped of agency, and non-binary people completely invisibilised.	From line 26 to 30: Trans people are facing increased negative discourse, prejudice, intolerance and violence from conservative right-wing actors and anti-trans women's groups. In these cases, trans women are vilified, trans men are stripped of agency, and non-binary people completely invisibilised. groups. We need joint forces to counter the hostility against trans people. As long as trans rights are played off against women's rights, right wing forces will benefit and use it in their fight against gender equality. Women's rights movements and trans rights movements must unite to overcome patriarchal structures together.	CAS agreed to replace to replace current text with: Trans people are facing increased negative discourse, prejudice, intolerance and violence from conservative right-wing actors and anti-trans groups. Furthermore, the rhetoric of campaigns by anti-trans women's groups vilifies trans women, strips trans men of agency and invisibilises non-binary people completely. We need joint forces to counter the hostility against trans people. As long as trans rights are played off against women's rights, right wing forces will benefit and use it in their fight against gender equality. Women's rights movements and trans rights movements must unite to overcome patriarchal structures together.
4	AM-43-1	Die Grünen	being available in various autonomous communities of Spain, discussion on a national law this year has been sidelined by anti-trans discourse and claims that a focus on trans issues erases (cis)women.	Insert from line 42 to 44: being available in various autonomous communities of Spain, discussion on a national law this year has been sidelined by anti-trans discourse and false claims that a focus on trans issues erases (cis)women.	Accepted
