1	Bündnis 90/ Die Grünen	12	add		Unfortunately, this moratorium has not stopped deforestation and provoked smuggling and so called "grey exports" (wrong category declaration for example as waste wood or fire wood).
2	Bündnis 90/ Die Grünen	13-14	replace	However, outside Ukraine, this legislative act by the Ukrainian parliament considered as being contrary to the principles of free trade. In particular, the European Union...	However, the moratorium is not compatible with Ukraine's commitments within the WTO and under the Association Agreement with the EU and therefore the European Union...
3	Miljöpartiet de Gröna	16	add		While this may be in line with the EU:s policy for raw materials, it limits the development choices of Ukraine.	The EU should not use its strength to impose limits on trade or development partners development policy choices simply to benefit EU industries.
4	Miljöpartiet de Gröna	18	add before "We..."		Further, forcing Ukraine to drop its moratorium could significantly increase the market pressure to cut down its forests.	To clarify and emphasize the point in the resolution text.

5	Europe Ecologie Les Verts	18-19	delete	We, the European Greens, emphasise that the consideration of environmental factors must be a priority in the process of international economic cooperation.		In this particular resolution, deforestation is not considered as a fundamentally environmental issue, it is also a question of local economy and this sentence could apply to all policies. It would be interesting for the EGP to have a global resolution on our Green European vision of environmental issues (New policy paper). The question of deforestation, risen here by our Ukrainian friends is also an issue for almost all EU members.
6	Bündnis 90/ Die Grünen	21	replace	to cancel	not to insist on
7	Bündnis 90/ Die Grünen	23	add		...to Ukraine, and to work together with the Ukrainian authorities in order to overcome it with the adoption of a legislation which at the same time introduces environmental protection standards and prevents deforestation and illegal logging and therefore support...

8	Europe Ecologie Les Verts	25	add	New paragraph	Deforestation is a conveyor belt to devastating climate change and species loss that the world must stop, and fast. "It is hypocritical for Europe to portray itself as a climate leader while doing little to slow its own insatiable appetite for the fruits of destroyed forests." The EU has to set an example, the battle against deforestation must be fought also in Europe (Ukraine, Poland ...) To combat deforestation a number of EU policies need to be reinforced. Moreover, in the context of climate negotiations two concrete and ambitious proposals have to be enforced (i) establishing a new instrument to generate significant funding to tackle deforestation and forest degradation, the Global Forest Carbon Mechanism; (ii) testing the inclusion of deforestation in carbon markets. The EU needs to take a leading role to shape the global policy response to deforestation. The European Commission and the EU Member States must work together to pool resources and ensure that actions are complementary.	Give amore european vision and responsibility to the question of deforestation in Europe too.
