

Amendments to R13: Mental health is political: Addressing Europe's mental health crisis holistically
Nº	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	Explanation / comment
1	AM-1-26	Oikologoi Prasinoi / Ecologist Greens			I would like to add 2 notions which the proposers can consider adding where they feel is appropriate 1. Destigmatize mental health and encourage people to openly talk about it 2. increase awareness using media and promote film industry with subjects dealing with mental health issues
2	AM-2-10	Green Party of England and Wales	The COVID-19 pandemic has put the spotlight on and worsened what Europe has long been facing – a mental health crisis. In the European Union, 83 million people are affected by poor mental health and one third of those suffering still do not	Insert from line 1 to 3: The COVID-19 pandemic has put the spotlight on and worsened what Europe has long been facing – a mental health crisis. In the European Union alone , 83 million people are affected by poor mental health and one third of those suffering still do not	Amendment allows for the fact that EGP membership includes non-EU Countries.
3	AM-4-1	Greens/EF A Group in the European Parliament	are affected by poor mental health and one third of those suffering still do not have access to mental healthcare. Brussels and national governments across Europe have done little to address this, and when doing so fail to take into	From line 3 to 5: are affected by poor mental health and one third of those suffering still do not have access to mental healthcare. Brussels The European Commission and national governments across Europe have done little to address this, and when doing so fail to take into

Amendments to R13: Mental health is political: Addressing Europe's mental health crisis holistically

Nº	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	Explanation / comment
4	AM-5-1	Oikologoi Prasinoi / Ecologist Greens	have access to mental healthcare. Brussels and national governments across Europe have done little to address this, and when doing so fail to take into consideration societal factors directly causing the crisis. We welcome the "comprehensive approach to mental health". However, an initiative treating the consequences rather than the causes is not enough. Addressing the mental health crisis necessitates a holistic, intersectional approach which, besides	Insert from line 4 to 6: have access to mental healthcare. Brussels and national governments across Europe have done little to address this, and when doing so they fail to take into consideration societal factors directly causing the crisis. We welcome the Insert from line 8 to 10: "comprehensive approach to mental health". However, an initiative treating the consequences rather than the causes, is not enough. Addressing the mental health crisis necessitates a holistic, intersectional approach which, besides
5	AM-19-1	Oikologoi Prasinoi / Ecologist Greens	Member States, but within them. Marginalised groups are disproportionately disadvantaged not just by societal discrimination but by discrimination within the mental healthcare system itself. Tackling this crisis, therefore, needs to	Insert from line 18 to 20: Member States, but within them. Marginalised groups are disproportionately disadvantaged not just by societal discrimination but also by discrimination within the mental healthcare system itself. Tackling this crisis, therefore, needs to
6	AM-27-1	Green Party of England and Wales	There is a sharp correlation between high levels of education and a decline in mental illness. Furthermore, schools play a key role within communities. Therefore, mental health in school curricula and services, such as counselling,	Insert from line 26 to 28: There is a sharp correlation between high levels of education and a decline in mental illness. Delete first sentence "There is a sharp correlation.... mental illness." and replace with "The educational system can have a profound and lasting effect on children's mental health."

Amendments to R13: Mental health is political: Addressing Europe's mental health crisis holistically

Nº	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	Explanation / comment
7	AM-28-1	Greens/EF A Group in the European Parliament	mental illness. Furthermore, schools play a key role within communities. Therefore, mental health in school curricula and services, such as counselling, must be radically instituted or improved. A broader purpose of public education must also consider integrational and cultural education for migrant and refugee	From line 27 to 30: mental illness. Furthermore, schools play a key role within communities. Therefore, mental health in school relevant professional curricula and services, such as counselling, must be radically rapidly instituted or improved. A broader purpose of public education must also consider integrational and cultural education for migrant and refugee	While we agree that it's important to have mental health studied, it doesn't have to be in all schools/universities. It is especially relevant for medical/paramedical professions, HR managers etc...
8	AM-29-1	Green Party of England and Wales	Therefore, mental health in school curricula and services, such as counselling, must be radically instituted or improved. A broader purpose of public education must also consider integrational and cultural education for migrant and refugee	Insert from line 28 to 30: Therefore, mental health in school curricula and services, such as counselling, must be radically instituted or improved. We need an educational system that accommodates and nurtures both neurodivergent people, such as those with ADHD and autism, and people with different mental health needs, like anxiety and depression. A broader purpose of public education must also consider integrational and cultural education for migrant and refugee

Amendments to R13: Mental health is political: Addressing Europe's mental health crisis holistically

Nº	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	Explanation / comment
9	AM-34-1	BÜNDNIS 90/Die Grünen	The right to housing is not guaranteed to all equally. Youth are amongst those vulnerable people who are greatly affected by the housing crises and are subject unemployed, seasonal workers, and (failed) asylum seekers. Young queer people, for example, risk parental rejection and are more exposed to homelessness. Plus, the neglect and dehumanisation of the homeless further exacerbates mental illness.	From line 34 to 35: The rightaccess to housing is not guaranteed to all equally. Youth are amongst those vulnerable people who are greatly affected by the housing crises and are subject From line 38 to 41: unemployed, seasonal workers, and (failed) asylum seekers. Young queer people, for example, risk parental rejection and are more exposed to homelessness. Plus, people with mental illnesses are at a higher risk of experiencing homelessness and the neglect and dehumanisation of the homeless further exacerbates mental illness-. creating a vicious cycle

Amendments to R13: Mental health is political: Addressing Europe's mental health crisis holistically

Nº	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	Explanation / comment
10	AM-45-1	Vihreät - De Gröna	throughout Europe, and furthermore, placed vulnerable individuals in situations of precariousness, exploitation, unemployment, and financial instability. The global capitalist system has normalised a culture of overwork, with all 15 European countries surveyed in 2021 reporting a burnout rate of 45% or higher. This is abnormal – we must neither live to work nor work to live – we must work	From line 44 to 48: throughout Europe, and furthermore, placed vulnerable individuals in situations of precariousness, exploitation, unemployment, and financial instability. The global capitalist system has normalised a culture of overwork, with all 15 European countries surveyed in 2021 reporting a burnout rate of 45% or higher. Current work culture is unsustainable in many ways. The increased demands caused by a working culture which encourages overworking has a grave negative impact on the mental health of individuals, including causing exhaustion and burn out. The normalisation of unsustainable working culture is a societal issue and needs to be addressed as such. The World Health Organisation 2022 World Mental Health Report indicates that globally one in eight people live with a mental health disorder, but resources for help and support are gravely under resourced. The same report lists e.g. decent work, community and safe environment as factors contributing to a better mental health. This is abnormal – we must neither live to work nor work to live – we must work	There was no source indicated for the high number of 45% and EU level studies indicate burnout rates of 2-25% among those in employment. (e.g European Foundation for the Improvement of Living and Working Conditions, 2018: https://euagenda.eu/upload/publications/untitled-178342-ea.pdf) Additionally, it is better to look at the prevalence of all mental health challenges. This is done by the amendment which also clearly states the source. WHO Mental Health Report accessible here: https://www.who.int/publications/i/item/9789240050860
11	AM-47-1	Green Party of England and Wales	global capitalist system has normalised a culture of overwork, with all 15 European countries surveyed in 2021 reporting a burnout rate of 45% or higher. This is abnormal – we must neither live to work nor work to live – we must work	Insert from line 46 to 48: global capitalist system has normalised a culture of overwork, with all 15 European countries surveyed in 2021 reporting a burnout rate of 45% or higher, and evidence of similar problems in non-EU states in the wider Europe. This is abnormal – we must neither live to work nor work to live – we must work	Amendment allows for the fact that EGP membership includes non-EU Countries.

Amendments to R13: Mental health is political: Addressing Europe's mental health crisis holistically

Nº	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	Explanation / comment
12	AM-59-1	Green Party of England and Wales	the lack of coordination between the services provided is a barrier for those seeking help.	Insert from line 58 to 59: the lack of coordination between the services provided is a barrier for those seeking help. Problems with service provision also exist in non-EU countries in the wider Europe.	Amendment allows for the fact that EGP membership includes non-EU Countries.
13	AM-60-1	Green Party of England and Wales	Systemic discrimination Black Lives Matter garnered global attention to the oppression of Afro-	Insert from line 60 to 61: Power structures in society erode the mental health of oppressed people and makes it harder for those already suffering to get back on their feet. Black Lives Matter garnered global attention to the oppression of Afro-
14	AM-74-1	Green Party of England and Wales	inequalities in diagnosis and care which depend on the cultural competence and attitudes of healthcare providers.	Insert from line 73 to 74: inequalities in diagnosis and care which depend on the cultural competence and attitudes of healthcare providers. Insert new paragraph: Since the COVID-19 pandemic, disabled/chronically ill people have faced increased mental health struggles due, for example, to isolation. Currently, the mental health impact on those living with a disability/chronic illness is often overlooked, yet mental and physical health go hand in hand. Healthcare must be holistic and multidisciplinary, so that those requiring long term physical healthcare also have integrated access to mental healthcare services.

Amendments to R13: Mental health is political: Addressing Europe's mental health crisis holistically

Nº	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	Explanation / comment
15	AM-83-1	Green Party of England and Wales	Based on the above, the European Greens are asking the EU and/or national governments to:	Insert from line 82 to 83: Based on the above, the European Greens are asking the EU and/or national governments to: including those in the wider Europe, to:	Amendment allows for the fact that EGP membership includes non-EU Countries.
16	AM-86-1	BÜNDNIS 90/Die Grünen	Factor in mental health when any resolution, report, or motion is drafted or debated;	From line 86 to 87: Factor in mental health when any resolution, regulation, law, report, or motion is drafted or debated; debated, following the "Health in All Policies" Approach by the WHO;
17	AM-86-2	Greens/EF A Group in the European Parliament	Factor in mental health when any resolution, report, or motion is drafted or debated;	From line 86 to 87: Factor in mental health when any resolution, report, or motion is drafted or debated; Mainstream mental health in all relevant policy initiatives and legislation at national and European level;
18	AM-90-1	SF - Green Left	With regards to education, to:	Insert in line 90: With regards to young people. As a UK-study shows (Children and young people: statistics Mental Health Foundation) 50% of mental health problems are established by age 14 and 75% by age 24. If the mental health problems of Europe's populations is to be improved, it will be necessary to prioritize the mental health of the youth as well as implementing mental health policies with the aim of preventing mental health problems from developing in the first place.	Youth and mental problems related to youth is in the core of the problem and needs its own chapter in the text

Amendments to R13: Mental health is political: Addressing Europe’s mental health crisis holistically

Nº	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	Explanation / comment
19	AM-91-1	Greens/EF A Group in the European Parliament	Develop and introduce mental health into the curriculum, such as emotional education;	From line 91 to 92: Develop and introduce mental health into the curriculum, such as emotional education; of all relevant professions having to address mental health issues ;
20	AM-91-2	Green Party of England and Wales	Develop and introduce mental health into the curriculum, such as emotional education;	Insert from line 91 to 92: Develop and introduce mental health literacy education into the curriculum, such as emotional education;
21	AM-92-1	Green Party of England and Wales	Develop and introduce mental health into the curriculum, such as emotional education;	Insert from line 91 to 92: Develop and introduce mental health into the curriculum, such as emotional education; Delete the words “such as emotional education” and replace with “as well as education on neurodiversity”
22	AM-108-1	Vihreät - De Gröna	Eliminate practices that contribute to overcrowding and substandard and unaffordable living conditions – for example, via rent controls, improved renter rights, and more social housing;	From line 108 to 110: Eliminate Address the root causes of the housing crisis by eliminating practices that contribute to overcrowding and substandard and unaffordable living conditions, as well as respond to the excess demand of housing – for example, via rent controls, improved renter rights, and boosting the supply of new housing, building more public and social housing; housing implementing rent control when applicable, providing housing benefits as part of social security, and improving renter rights;	This amendment aims to bring more tools to address the housing issue. It is essential to note that measures that work in certain places may not function in others; rent control, for example, has occurred to be a relatively inefficient measure to combat the rising costs of living, involving some risks such as the creation of grey markets, decreased incentive for landlords to maintain properties, thus decreasing the quality of apartments, and further shortages in the housing market. In some cases, intervening in the housing market is not as efficient as using other measures, such as increasing the amount of social housing. Thus, we wanted to add certain measures to increase the diversity and applicability of proposed policies.

Amendments to R13: Mental health is political: Addressing Europe's mental health crisis holistically

Nº	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	Explanation / comment
23	AM-109-1	Green Party of England and Wales	Eliminate practices that contribute to overcrowding and substandard and unaffordable living conditions – for example, via rent controls, improved renter rights, and more social housing;	Insert from line 108 to 110: Eliminate practices that contribute to overcrowding and substandard and unaffordable living conditions – for example, via rent controls, improved and enforceable renter rights, and more social housing;
24	AM-109-2	Esquerra Verda	Eliminate practices that contribute to overcrowding and substandard and unaffordable living conditions – for example, via rent controls, improved renter rights, and more social housing;	From line 108 to 110: Eliminate practices that contribute to overcrowding and substandard and unaffordable living conditions – for example, via rent controls caps , improved renter rights, and more social housing;
25	AM-110-1	Green Party of England and Wales	unaffordable living conditions – for example, via rent controls, improved renter rights, and more social housing;	Insert from line 109 to 110: unaffordable living conditions – for example, via rent controls, improved renter rights, higher energy efficiency standards , and more social housing;
26	AM-110-2	Green Party of England and Wales	renter rights, and more social housing;	Insert after line 110: Insert new paragraph (and renumber) "Provide access to free legal advice and legal aid, so that renters have the information and resources they need to uphold their rights."

Amendments to R13: Mental health is political: Addressing Europe's mental health crisis holistically

Nº	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	Explanation / comment
27	AM-111-1	Vihreät - De Gröna	Combat rising costs of living, primarily energy poverty for the upcoming winter, via price ceilings or rent moratoria, such as in the Energy Poverty Resolution of 2021;	Delete from line 111 to 113: Combat rising costs of living, primarily energy poverty for the upcoming winter, via price ceilings or rent moratoria, such as in the Energy Poverty Resolution of 2021;	Price ceilings for electricity would only impact the prices at electricity exchange, not necessarily what the individual pays. Also, moratorium will solve the issue of unaffordable housing as it does not relieve the tenant of their obligation to pay the rent. It may even lead to increased debt trap once law or order creating the moratorium seizes to apply and the renter has to pay all rent or be evicted. These proposed actions do not long-term solve the issue mentioned. We need more permanent solutions are proposed in the new text above.
28	AM-112-1	BÜNDNIS 90/Die Grünen	Combat rising costs of living, primarily energy poverty for the upcoming winter, via price ceilings or rent moratoria, such as in the Energy Poverty Resolution of 2021;	From line 111 to 113: Combat rising costs of living, primarily energy poverty for the upcoming winter, via with measures like price ceilings or rent moratoria or providing financial support to low income households , such as in the Energy Poverty Resolution of 2021;
29	AM-115-1	BÜNDNIS 90/Die Grünen	Recognise housing as a fundamental right and provide the homeless with humanity and dignity via ethical and humane temporary living conditions;	From line 114 to 115: Recognise housing as a fundamental right and provide the homeless with humanity and dignity via ethical and humane temporary living conditions; conditions following the housing first approach that has been implemented in some member states already;
30	AM-116-1	BÜNDNIS 90/Die Grünen	Provide those in social housing with tools for self-reliance enabling them eventually to be able to afford permanent housing.	Insert from line 116 to 117: Provide those in temporary social housing with tools for self-reliance enabling them eventually to be able to afford permanent housing.

Amendments to R13: Mental health is political: Addressing Europe's mental health crisis holistically

Nº	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	Explanation / comment
31	AM-117-1	Groen	eventually to be able to afford permanent housing.	Insert after line 117: Provide low-energy, high-quality social housing for those who cannot enter the private rental market	Adding one proposition with regards to housing For those who cannot get into the private housing market, the government must guarantee sufficient social housing. It is important that these are energy-efficient so that they are both climate-friendly and do not cause people to incur high energy costs.
32	AM-119-1	Vihreät - De Gröna	Expand workers' rights by, among others, increasing minimum pay and paid vacation, reducing maximum working hours, restricting grounds for firing,	From line 119 to 120: Expand workers' rights by, among others, increasing the minimum pay level of social protection or income in a manner customary to each member state and paid vacation, reducing maximum working hours, restricting grounds for firing,	The proposed wording would also include adequate income for those not in employment supporting the next bullet point, and also take into account those countries where minimum pay is not set in law but through collective agreements.
33	AM-120-1	Green Party of England and Wales	Expand workers' rights by, among others, increasing minimum pay and paid vacation, reducing maximum working hours, restricting grounds for firing, and abolishing unpaid work;	Insert from line 119 to 121: Expand workers' rights by, among others, increasing minimum pay and paid vacation, reducing maximum working hours, restricting grounds for firing, increasing parental leave , and abolishing unpaid work;
34	AM-121-1	Vihreät - De Gröna	vacation, reducing maximum working hours, restricting grounds for firing, and abolishing unpaid work;	From line 120 to 121: vacation, reducing maximum working hours, restricting grounds for firing, and abolishing unpaid work ; work, including e.g. unpaid internships ;	In many countries, unpaid internships have been largely normalised, which encourages employers to exploit (young) labour, causing financial stress, instability and hence, more mental health problems. Unpaid work should be abolished in all its forms. Unpaid internships are a clear manifestation of the issue within the EU and should therefore be specifically addressed in the resolution, as proposed in this amendment.

Amendments to R13: Mental health is political: Addressing Europe's mental health crisis holistically

Nº	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	Explanation / comment
35	AM-122-1	BÜNDNIS 90/Die Grünen	Ensure the financial stability of workers via a European basic income;	In line 122: Ensure the financial stability of workers via adequate wages as well as social benefits that secure livelihoods. In doing so, we are guided by the idea of an European basic income;
36	AM-125-1	Groen	identity.	Insert after line 125: Provide appropriate guidance so that everyone have access to quality, sustainable jobs Ensure an adequate minimum social protection for those who can't work	Motivation: Adding to propositions with regards to work. For those who cannot work due to circumstances, we need to provide sufficient guidance that they are able to work despite many barriers and difficulties. When people remain jobless despite guidance and customisation, there must be sufficient social protection. So that this is not an extra strain on mental health
37	AM-125-2	Green Party of England and Wales	identity.	Insert after line 125: Insert new paragraph (and renumber): "Ensure high workers' welfare standards in public procurement contracts and eliminate modern day slavery from all supply chains."
38	AM-125-3	Green Party of England and Wales	identity.	Insert after line 125: Insert new paragraph and (and renumber): "Ensure neurodiversity is not discriminated against in both hiring and employment by adopting neurodiversity-friendly hiring and workplace practices in the public sector and incentivising similar practices among private employers."

Amendments to R13: Mental health is political: Addressing Europe's mental health crisis holistically

Nº	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	Explanation / comment
39	AM-127-1	BÜNDNIS 90/Die Grünen	Make mental healthcare part of the public healthcare system at no additional cost to individuals;	From line 127 to 128: Make mental healthcare part of Ensure Universal Health Coverage in accordance with the WHO definition, with a public healthcare system at that includes mental health care with no additional cost to costs for individuals;
40	AM-128-1	Green Party of England and Wales	additional cost to individuals;	Insert after line 128: Insert new paragraph (and renumber) "Work towards integrating physical, social and mental health care, increasing communication within and between services, and facilitating interdisciplinary collaboration. This will make services easier to navigate, and promote holistic, person-centred care."
41	AM-132-1	Green Party of England and Wales	preventive care;	Insert after line 132: Insert new paragraph (and renumber) "Involve people with lived experience of mental health issues in the shaping and implementation of relevant mental health services (e.g., through independent advocacy)."
42	AM-135-1	Green Party of England and Wales	mental illness to ensure a cohesive and understandable system, and equal access to care throughout the Member States;	From line 134 to 135: mental illness to ensure a cohesive and understandable system, and equal access to care throughout the Member States; States, all of which can be used as an example for non-EU countries in the wider Europe;	Amendment allows for the fact that EGP membership includes non-EU Countries.

Amendments to R13: Mental health is political: Addressing Europe's mental health crisis holistically

Nº	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	Explanation / comment
43	AM-140-1	Vihreät - De Gröna	As only 4 Member States meet the recommended number of 20 psychologists per 100,000 people, fund education to boost the number of psychologists to ensure that all Member States meet and eventually surpass this minimum;	From line 140 to 142: As only 4 Member States meet the recommended number of 20 psychologists per 100,000 people, fund education to boost the number of psychologists to ensure that all Member States meet and eventually surpass this minimum; The WHO has alerted the European region in its 2022 report Health and care workforce in Europe: time to act on European countries' lack of capability to respond to the worsening mental health situation due to the inadequate number of health and care workers, especially insufficient recruitment of mental health professionals. To solve this crisis, the European countries need to take the WHO recommendations seriously, fund increased education of mental health professionals, promote healthy work life balance and take measures to protect the health and mental well-being of the workforce.	We should focus on the lack of all types of mental health professionals in Europe, a situation which has been exacerbated by the pandemic: psychiatrists, therapists, psychiatric nurses and psychologists. WHO has called for European countries to act to solve this. Summary of the WHO Report Health and care workforce in Europe: time to act can be found here: https://apps.who.int/iris/handle/10665/362379
44	AM-143-1	BÜNDNIS 90/Die Grünen	Increase funding for intersectional education, research, diagnosis and treatment of mental health to appropriately address the severity of this crisis.	From line 143 to 145: Increase funding for intersectional education, research, diagnosis and treatment of and caring for mental health with a special focus on gender and race to appropriately address the severity of this crisis. Recognize, appropriately research and care for deteriorating mental health in the context of the climate crisis (eco-depression)
45	AM-161-1	Green Party of England and Wales	Ensure adequate mental healthcare for refugees.	Insert in line 161: Ensure adequate mental healthcare for refugees and other migrants.

Amendments to R13: Mental health is political: Addressing Europe's mental health crisis holistically

N°	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	Explanation / comment
46	AM-161-2	Europe Ecologie- Les Verts	Ensure adequate mental healthcare for refugees.	Insert after line 161: Because the party of European greens has always formulated political proposals linking climate justice and social justice, our youth, who live with all their differences, whether it be visible disabilities or not visible, we urge the EP to act and follow every year with efficiency for: a)-binding links between for the new disability strategy and EU funding. b)- introducing GALL to harmonise disability data collection. by including any EU social surveys in order to regularly monitor, with the help of statistical data, the situation of people with disabilities in different domains affecting their quality of life. (As announced in its strategy for the rights of persons with disabilities 2021-2030). c)-Ensuring peer-learning exercise on digital youth work as well as peer-learning activity on innovative ways of financing youth work, young disabled people included to prevent mental health troubles by tackling and getting solutions to isolated families.	