Employment History

Lehet Más a Politika (LMP)

I am currently a councilor in the II. district of Budapest.

MOL Group

Ever summer since 2010 I have worked as an intern at “MOL Group”, the largest Central and Eastern European Energy Company. In the first two summers I was at the Communications department, then for the last one I worked on a project regarding the regional jet fuel market with the Strategy department. I also co-authored an article for the MOL scientific magazine¹.

Al Jazeera Balkans

I worked on Al Jazeera Balkans' in-depth report on the new constitution of Hungary. I organised interviews with government officials, opposition leaders and young people. Among others, I arranged an interview with the Foreign Minister of Hungary János Martonyi, and representatives from opposition parties MSZP, LMP and DK.

Best House Real-estate Agency

I worked for five months as an interpreter and an assistant for this Santander based real-estate agency. My main responsibilities were showing flats to foreign buyers and writing English language advertisement material.

Democratic National Convention Committee

I volunteered for the 2008 Democratic Convention in Denver. My responsibilities included registering volunteers, administering press passes and connecting the maintenance staff and the HQ.

Other Activities

Moscow School of Political Studies

I have attended two federal seminars of the Moscow School of Political Studies since 2010. Held in Moscow, the conferences bring together young Russian leaders of a variety of political persuasions from across the country to discuss topics such as civil society, the economy, rule of law and international relations with world-class experts. I graduated from the School in July 2011.

The József Antall Foundation

I was one of the three winners selected in the József Antall Foundation's essay competition, "Model and Reality". This meant that my essay was published in Heti Válasz, a weekly newspaper.² (May 2008)

Edinburgh University Bridge Club

I was the secretary of EUBC in the 2010/2011 academic year. I am an intermediate player of the ACOL system.
